

JOHN LAWRENCE BROCKMAN

Jack Brockman, 74, of Virginia Beach, Virginia passed away on Monday August 6, 2012 in his home. Originally from Baltimore, MD, Jack graduated from the Naval Academy in 1960 and continued his active duty Naval service until 1970 at which time he joined the Naval Reserves and started a long career at the Norfolk Naval Shipyard, retiring in 1993 as the head of Nuclear Inspection. He enjoyed his nearly twenty years of retirement spending time on his boat, with his family and his friends. He was predeceased by his wife of 37 years, Suzanne Brockman (2005). He is survived by his two children

John Brockman, III, and Amy Gusek and her husband Peter Gusek as well as his five grandchildren Audrey, Theron, Kate, Jill and Paige.

The Virginian Pilot