

WILLIAM GLENN COUNSIL

William Glenn Council, 68, of Landrum, died Tuesday, Jan. 24, 2006, at St. Francis Hospital after an extended illness.

Born on Dec. 13, 1937, in Detroit, Michigan, he was the son of the late Glenn D. and Jean Rzepecki Council, and was also preceded in death by his brother, Richard Council.

He was a graduate of the United States Naval Academy, Class of 1960, and later served in the Navy on the nuclear submarine USS George Washington from 1963-1967. Upon leaving the Navy, he served as Senior Vice-President at Northeast Utilities in Connecticut and then went on to serve as Vice-Chairman of Texas Utilities and CEO of Washington Public Power in Richland, Washington. Upon retirement in 1996, he continue to be a consultant for the nuclear power industry. Mr. Council has resided at the Cliffs of Glassy since 1996.

Surviving are his wife of forty-five years, Donna Robinson Council; two sons and daughters-in-law, Glenn D. and Beth Council of Greenville, and Craig Michael and Leah Council of Atlanta, Ga.; one grandson, Williams Saunders Council.

*The Greenville News (South Carolina)
January 29, 2006 Sunday Final Edition*