

JAMES JOSEPH HOGAN

James Joseph Hogan, 72, of Kenton, Ohio, died Monday (July 20, 2009) at Hardin Memorial Hospital.

He was born Oct. 31, 1936 in Chillicothe, Ohio, the son of the late Oren James and Mary Alberta (Libold) Hogan. He had been married to Sandra L. Hogan and Dorothy McDougle.

Raised in Kenton, Jim attended the Kenton Public School System. He then attended Ohio State University before being appointed to the U.S. Naval Academy where he was a member of the Class of 1960. He also was a U.S. Army veteran.

Jim retired from MA Hogan Elevator Inc., of which he and his brother Tom were the owners/operators. Prior to returning home to the family business, he was vice president of systems analysis at the System Analysis Corporation in Satellite Beach, Fla.

Jim wanted to see the world and with his avid desire for knowledge, his many sojourns to foreign lands gave him a reservoir of knowledge to share with others.

Survivors include two daughters, Tanya Hogan of Brocton, NY and Tamara Meyer of Fredonia, NY; one son, Theron Hogan of Kenton; three grandchildren, Seth Hogan of Brocton, and Dylan and Tryslan Meyer of Fredonia; one brother, Thomas (Diane) Hogan of Kenton; one sister, Patricia (Lawrence) Holmer of Stow, Ohio; several nieces, nephews, great-nieces, great-nephews and his best friend, Harry. Besides his parents, he was preceded in death by a son, Alexander Hogan.

Americanmemorials.com