

LAWRENCE WILLIAM LAVELY

Captain Lawrence W. Lively, USN (Ret.), a resident of McLean, VA, passed away on Monday, 5 December 2011. He was 75 years old.

Captain Lively was born and raised in Cincinnati, OH, and graduated from St. Xavier High School. He was a graduate of the Naval Academy, Class of 1960, and proudly served our country in Vietnam.

In 1970, Captain Lively earned a master's degree in petroleum engineering at the University of Kansas and later attended the National War College.

He retired from the Navy in 1989 and entered the private sector, where he worked for the next 20 years. In his later years, he shared his experience and time with such organizations as SCORE and the Lombardi Comprehensive Center at Georgetown University. He was most recently a member of Our Lady of Good Counsel Catholic Church in Vienna, VA.

He is survived by his six loving children, Susan, Stefanie, Deborah, Sandra, Eric and Jonathan; his seven adoring grandchildren; sister, Mary Letty; and brother, Dan. He was predeceased by his twin brother, Jerry.

A beloved and charismatic gentleman, he will be missed by all.
