

Charles Everett McHale

Charles Everett McHale Jr. died October 4, 1996 at the age of 58, on the golf course doing what he loved to do. He retired from the Northrop Corp. in 1994 and played golf daily.

After leaving the Naval Academy, Charlie got a degree in Aeronautical Engineering from Purdue University. He was proud to have helped in the development of the F-18 and B-2 aircraft. Heat transfer was his specialty.

He was also a private pilot. Airplanes and golf were his passion.

Charlie married Sue Zimmerman on June 8, 1960. They had a son Scott and daughter Kelly. Two grandchildren were born before he died, but now there are four.

Written by Sue McHale (Charlie's Widow)