

James Burnley Ramsey

James Burnley Ramsey, age 77, passed away peacefully at his home in New Albany on March 31, 2014. Jim graduated from the United States Naval Academy and was a Navy pilot for 20 years. He then worked for the State of Ohio for the next 27 years. After retirement he served as adjunct faculty at Columbus State. He is survived by his wife of 50 years, Mary Lee; his three children, Paul (Kim), Kirstin (Shane) Bangerter, and Courtney (Christian) Armstrong; seven grandchildren, Austin, Alexandria, Paige, Sarah, James Thomas "J.T.", Keira and Chance; and his brother William Ramsey and wife Scottie. He was much loved by numerous relatives and friends.

The Columbus Dispatch