

Edward Arthur Ransom

Edward Arthur Ransom was born in Detroit, Michigan in 1935 and passed away on January 2, 2014.

Following his Catholic Elementary and High School Education he entered the United States Naval Academy and received his commission in 1960. A 30 year career in Submarines and Military Intelligence followed. Upon retirement, Ed chose a complementary career path, and worked for companies involved in satellite and aerospace efforts. Upon retiring from full time employment for the third time, he became the lead Sacristan at his Parish, St. Mary Magdalen in Camarillo.

Ed is survived by his wife, Peggi, three daughters and a son; Cathy Ransom, Joan Redeen, Beth Ransom and Dr. Edward Ransom, Jr. (D.Ed.), and two sisters Reba Ferris and Mary Ellen Gaffigan. Seven grandchildren and too many nieces and nephews to count round out the family who wish him "Fair winds and following seas" as he continues his journey.
