

John Robert Skeldon

John Robert 'Jack' Skeldon Jr. was born December 31, 1935 and passed away November 15, 2009 at Baylor, Irving Hospice after a long illness.

Jack was born at Ft. Sam Houston in San Antonio. He graduated from Central Catholic High School there. He attended the Naval Academy and St. Mary's University, also in San Antonio.

He is survived by his beloved wife of 45 years, Geraldine Fly Skeldon of Irving; two daughters Sabrina Skeldon of Dallas, and Sara Lovelady and two grandchildren Shelby Zipper and Zachery Zipper of Red Oak; brothers Michael Skeldon of San Antonio, and Tim Skeldon of Bedford; sister Helen Skeldon of San Antonio; and many nieces and nephews whom he adored.

He was a computer systems engineer for 35 years and retired from VHA, Inc.

The family wishes to thank Dr. Rothkoph and his staff and especially the CHF clinic staff, along with Dr. Liang and his staff and Dr. Heidbrink and his staff and also Dr. Kapil and her staff for the kindness and care shown towards Jack over the past years.

Americanmemorials.com