

ALBERT ANTHONY TREGLIA

Albert A. Treglia, 56, a chemical engineer for 16 years for the Acushnet Co. in Fall River, MA, died yesterday at home.

He was the husband of Francine C. (Federico) Treglia.

Born in East Providence, a son of the late Sylvi and Mary Carmella (Pitassi) Treglia, he lived in Providence before moving to Bristol 26 years ago.

Mr. Treglia previously worked for the Fulflex Co., formerly in Bristol.

He was a communicant of Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church.

Besides his wife he leaves three sons, Michael T. Treglia of Woodbridge, VA, Robert S.

Treglia of Manchester, CT, and John F. Treglia of Bristol; three daughters, Mary C.

McElhone, Louise M. Reulbach, both of Las Vegas, NV, Abigail A. Treglia of Bristol, and six grandchildren. He was the brother of the late Angelo Treglia.

The funeral was held at the Sansone Funeral Home, with a Mass of Christian Burial at Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church, State Street. Burial was in St. Francis Cemetery in Pawtucket.

The Providence Journal