

Harry Blaise Trulli

Harry Blaise Trulli, 85, of Parrish, Fl, passed away on August 28, 2021. Born July 1, 1936, in Chicago, Illinois. Harry was the first born son of Martin and Lucille (Mannina) Trulli.

His outstanding work ethic was formed at a very early age as Harry often could be found working at his family's drug store after school each day.

Harry was a proud 1960 graduate of the United States Naval Academy. Upon his graduation Harry actively served his country as an officer in the United States Navy with great honor, commitment, and integrity. Harry's time spent in the service of our country was a great source of pride for him and his family, he would often spend time reminiscing about the relationships and experiences he had forged while in the Navy.

As a young active duty Naval officer, Harry met and married the love of his life, Joan Carol Petrell on May 10, 1962. Harry and Joan shared fifty happy and loving years together as man and wife. Loving, caring, and providing for his family was the biggest priority for Harry throughout his entire life as a husband and father. There is no better role model to be found. Upon completion of active duty in the Navy. Harry began his engineering career with the Kimberly-Clark Manufacturing Company as a paper science engineer. Harry spent the majority of his professional career as a Quality Control Engineer for the Eastman Kodak Company, ultimately retiring from Kodak after providing more than thirty years of professional contributions.

Harry loved spending time with his family, sharing his love of the outdoors. sailing, nature. sports and politics with his kids and grandkids. Harry's passion and excitement for sports was really on display when he was watching and rooting for the Buffalo Bills, Michigan State Spartans, and Navy to beat Army in football each fall.

Always good at working with his hands and problem solving. Harry has left a legacy of lessons for his kids and grandkids to live up to. Harry treated every person he met with respect and kindness, his genuine interest in people allowed him to strike up a friendly conversation with everyone he met. He would often go out of his way to help if he was able to. To know Harry was to love him, he will be missed greatly by his family and friends, but his legacy lives on in the lives of everyone he ever interacted with.

Harry is survived by his kids, Leslie and her husband Dwight Cummings, and grandsons Evan, Ian and Eric; John and his wife Nancy Trulli. and grandson Brian; Michele Trulli; brother, Bruce, and his wife Donna Trulli, and nieces Ginger Miller and Jennifer Schoenberger and their families; sister-in-law, Natalie, and her husband Robert (Jake) Crociati, and nephew Douglas Crociati and family, and niece Dori Follette and family. Harry was preceded in death by his parents Martin and Lucille Trulli; wife, Joan Trulli; and in-laws. John and Marie Petrell Jr.
